SELECTION OF CHAIR PROFESSOR

Last date for receipt of applications extended upto
10th December, 2018

This Institute has established a Chair in memory of Lok Nayak Jayaprakash Narayan, for carrying out regular research in the area of 'peaceful and humane ways of solving crime'. In order to select a suitable person for appointment as Chair Professor, applications are invited from suitable persons who are fulfilling the eligibility criteria as mentioned hereunder:

Eligibility criteria/essential qualifications

The candidate should hold Master's degree in Social Sciences or Law, with at least 14 years' experience in teaching, research, criminal justice administration or related fields. In addition, the candidate should be able to demonstrate sound knowledge of empirical and doctrinal research methodologies.

The candidates should be below 67 years of age as on last date of application.

Eligible serving or retired officers of All India Services, Central/State Governments and Judiciary can also apply but will have to ensure that their cadre clearance is received within 2 weeks of the closing date.

The Institute will prefer research on problems that are contemporary, affect large sections of society, and lead to crime reduction and/or expedite Justice Delivery. On conclusion the research the incumbent must produce in addition to broad recommendations, specific action points, PERT Chart, draft SOPs, proposed forms/returns, etc.

Since this is a full time assignment, permission of the Institute will be necessary for undertaking any outside work, other than academic publications.

A selected candidate would be expected to take up the assignment within 2 months of selection.

Contd...2/-

This Institute will reimburse to and fro AC 2-Tier fare by rail to out-station candidates, who are short-listed and called for interview.

The Chair Professor will be able to avail the services of a Research Assistant.

The decision of the Selection Committee appointed by the Government shall be final.

Campus accommodation will be as per availability.
