

Guidelines for Contributors

1. Indian Journal of Criminology and Criminalistics welcomes original articles, monographs, research reports and book reviews in the broad field of Criminology and Forensic Science. The Journal is published twice in a year in the months of January and July every year.
2. The length of the material should not exceed 8000 words and must be typed on the one side of paper, double-spaced with wide margins on all four sides. Keywords and an abstract (not exceeding 100 words) must accompany the article. Articles should be sent to the Editor (by designation) not by name.
3. Each manuscript should be accompanied by a Declaration that the material has not been published elsewhere and not have been submitted for publication in any other Journal.
4. Initially only the hard copy of the type script (two copies) should be sent. If the article is accepted for publication, the contributor(s) will be required to send the soft copy of the article as an E-mail attachment processed on MSWord for Windows.
5. Footnotes should be listed in an appendix and not typed at the bottom of the manuscript pages on which they appear.
6. For more than two authors name of the first author followed by 'et al.' should be used in the text of the paper. For institutional authorship, minimum identification from the beginning or the complete citation like LNJNI National Institute of Criminology & Forensic Science may be supplied.
7. If there is more than one reference to the same author and year, uses of letter (a, b) attached to year of publication in text and in reference appendix, should be adopted.
8. The bibliographic details of all works cited in the article should be given under References in the following sequence:
 - (a) In case of a book: the name(s) of the author(s); the year of publication; title of the book (italicised); place of publication; and the name of the publisher.
 - (b) In case of chapter on edited work or compilation, the name(s) of the author(s); the year of publication; title of the chapter (within single inverted commas); the name(s) of the editor(s)/compiler(s); title of the book (italicised); the beginning and ending page numbers of the chapter; place of publication; and the name of the name of the publisher.
 - (c) In case of an article: the name(s) of the author(s); the year of publication; title of the article (within single inverted commas); the name of the journal (italicised); and the volume number, the issue number, and the beginning and ending page numbers.
The listing of References must follow the alphabetical order of the last name of the (first) author.
9. Tables, charts, maps, figures, etc. are to be placed separately at the end of the article, numbered serially, with appropriate titles/ captions giving their reference in the text by their number.
10. The Institute is not bound to respond to unsolicited articles sent for publication which do not comply with these guidelines.
11. All editorial correspondences should be addressed to following (and not by name):

Executive Editor,

The Indian Journal of Criminology and Criminalistics,
LNJNI National Institute of Criminology and Forensic Science,
Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India,
Sector-3, Rohini, Delhi-110085, India,

Tel:91+011+27517763; Fax: 91+011+27510586; Email: ijcc.nicfs@nic.in